

PROCLAMATION

BY THE MAYOR OF THE
VILLAGE OF WILLIAMSBURG, OHIO

WHEREAS, Liz Betemps has devoted herself to preserving, sharing, and celebrating the history and spirit of Williamsburg and the surrounding community; and

WHEREAS, through her work with Harmony Hill Museum, Liz has helped protect local heritage and create meaningful educational experiences that connect residents and visitors to Williamsburg's past; and

WHEREAS, through her involvement with the Williamsburg Farmers Market, Liz has supported local growers, encouraged community engagement, and strengthened the small-town connections that make Williamsburg special; and

WHEREAS, as Williamsburg's representative for America 250-Ohio, Liz has helped our community take part in the commemoration of our nation's 250th anniversary and inspired civic pride in our village's place in American history; and

WHEREAS, Liz's leadership, volunteerism, and passion for community life have enriched Williamsburg and made a lasting positive impact on residents of all ages;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, James Weaver, Mayor of the Village of Williamsburg, Ohio, do hereby proclaim

OCTOBER 27, 2026
AS
LIZ BETEMPS DAY

in the Village of Williamsburg, and encourage all residents to join in recognizing and celebrating her contributions to America 250, Harmony Hill Museum, the Williamsburg Farmers Market, and the continued spirit of

*Living in Harmony with Our History
While Building Our Future.*
